
Points: medians of complete repeats; whiskers: measured minimum–maximum. Speedups require paired outputs passing accuracy checks.
Incomplete workers have no invented median. Finite powder q spacing is a timing workload, not a resolution guarantee.